

Joan Logue

Personal: Grew up in San Leandro. Graduated University of the Pacific in 1964 with a BA in Education. Widowed twice. Two children and one grandson. Moved to Lincoln Hills in 1999 with Alan who died in 2001.

Work experience: Worked for Dean Witter in San Francisco summers and winter break as a typist in the Portfolio Department.

Worked as a Student Teacher in Torreon, Mexico 1963-1964.

Worked as an elementary school teacher at Alvarado Elementary School in New Haven School District, Union City, CA. 1964 – 1999 (35 years at the same school!) Taught all grades over the years from first through eighth. Worked on many committees within the school district to improve education from curriculum to disaster planning and including a program on conflict management for students.

Volunteering: While raising my children my husband and I coached Little League and I was an advisor for Jobs Daughters as well as a Girl Scout Leader.

Here in Lincoln Hills :

Leader of Bereavement Group 10 years +

Leader of Support Team (before Neighbors InDeed) 3 years

Assistant Executive Director and Board Member of Neighborhood Watch – 5 years

Member of the Communication and Community Relations Committee CCRC - 4 1/2 years. Started the Community Forums and assisted with the Health Education Community Forum Team.

Lincoln Hills 10th Anniversary Celebration 2009 – Part of Trio who planned the 4-day event.

Compass Staff – About 8 years. I write occasional articles and the monthly Memoriams.

Schools Group – I volunteer to teach Reading to first graders once a week.

Strategic Advisory Committee: I was part of the a Task Force for the 2012-1013 SAC.

Charter Member of the Macintosh Users Group

I volunteer at my Church

Lincoln Hills Foundation Board, Secretary - 2 years